In 1922, Howard Carter peered into Tutankhamun's tomb for the first time, the only light coming from the candle in his outstretched hand. Urged to tell what he was seeing through the small opening he had cut in the door to the tomb, the Egyptologist famously replied, "I see wonderful things." Carter's fabulous discovery is just one of the many spellbinding stories told in Three Stones Make a Wall. Written by Eric Cline, an archaeologist with more than thirty seasons of excavation experience, this book traces the history of archaeology from an amateur pursuit to the cutting-edge science it is today by taking the reader on a tour of major archaeological sites and discoveries. Along the way, it addresses the questions archaeologists are asked most often: How do you know where to dig? How are excavations actually done? How do you know how old

-Do you want to be able to hear clearly from God on a daily basis? -Have you ever wondered if God could or would speak to you like He spoke in times past to the men and women of the bible? The Old and New Testament stories reviewed in this devotional will help you to personalize the scriptures. You will discover answers to many common questions about marriage, relationships, faith, love, forgiveness, testing, peace, God's love, and much more. You can become more intimate with the same God who spoke using a donkey, angels, clouds, people, visions, dreams, and many other signs and wonders. "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever" (Hebrews 13:8). God is still speaking to His children today, and He wants to speak to you as you dig deeper, day by day, into His Word.
