To my mind, DK produce some of the best guides around and this one of Rome is packed with information, great illustrations and easy to follow guidelines. Just be aware, especially in the heat of summer, that you will not get it all done as the book suggests unless you want to exhaust yourselves and risk getting foot blisters!

This is the first DK Eyewitness Travel Guide I have purchased, but I would highly recommend it. The other great thing about the book is the large fold out and detachable laminated city map in the back, complete with a Metro map and information. It also contains a lot of museum information. All in all it is simply packed full of great information.
